

SUBJECT: MOSES TEAM TRAINING: An Exciting Opportunity!

PURPOSE: Build our power through active congregational ministry teams which address criminal justice system reform and related issues. Most congregational ministry teams with a criminal justice system reform focus are part of other congregational teams (e.g. Social Justice, Racial Justice, Peace and Justice) and don't necessarily focus only on MOSES.

DATE: Saturday, October 13

9:00-9:30 am: Registration

9:30 am-Noon: Training

LOCATION: To be announced

TRAINERS: David Liners, WISDOM, and Frank Davis, MOSES

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM ATTENDING THE TRAINING?

1. Individuals from MOSES member congregations with and without a ministry team addressing criminal justice system reform
2. Individuals from MOSES non-member congregations
3. MOSES members with an interest in improving their team-building skills
4. Individuals from your congregations who are new to MOSES or have expressed an interest in the MOSES issues

WHY ATTEND...WHAT YOU'LL LEARN...

1. Organizing basics
2. Forming, building, growing a new ministry team
3. Enhancing and expanding an existing ministry team
4. Engaging your congregation in MOSES issues
5. As individual MOSES members of non-member congregations, learn how to join together within MOSES to have a greater impact on criminal justice system reform.
6. Build relationships with other MOSES members and learn from each other.
